Friend Arthur

If possible give me some appointment or situation, there is nothing on earth for me to do here; I should have enlisted as a private, before this if I had been able to have stood the fatigue – almost anything would be acceptable.

Truly R. F. Follet

Whitehall
August 7, 1862

If it would be better for me to come down, with me, and I will do so –