I asked him to write me in relation to that matter. I told him I said nothing to you about getting him a position any where else, and did not know that it could be done.

I enclose his letter in reply. If there is any chance to give him a certain position now it will be better for him than to await contingencies.

Yours truly

G. W. Parker