

1864-1865: CULMINATING COLORS

A CIVIL WAR TOUR AT THE NEW YORK STATE CAPITOL

The Civil War's momentous events in 1864 and 1865 left a tremendous impact on New York State and the nation. 1864-1865: Culminating Colors, A Civil War Tour at the New York State Capitol is a special program that highlights Civil War connections with the Capitol and explores an 1864 to 1865-themed exhibit of eight historic flags from the New York State Battle Flag Collection, administered by the New York State Military Museum.

Sponsored by the New York State Office of General Services, the tour is a "Living History" program, presented by an interpreter in Civil War costume, and will include a gallery tour of the flag exhibition. Each historic flag was conserved by the New York State Office of Parks, Recreation, and Historic Preservation in partnership with the Military Museum. For more information, please call 518-473-7582.
