FOR VOLUNTEERS.

E. S. Barger, Secretary

You have been appointed a War Committee for your School District, by the Central Town Committee, of Westfield, to aid in raising the balance of the quota, for the town.

You are requested to meet at once, canvass the district, and report to the Central Committee, the names of those who can best volunteer, and their circumstances; and the names of those who express a willingness to volunteer.

Please meet the Central Committee at the Recruiting Office in Westfield Village on Wednesday the 17th at 2 P.M. and bring your report.

You know too well the urgency of the call for men, to require comment; and the earnest desire to fill the quota by volunteers.

To allow a draft to be made upon Westfield to make out the remainder of her quota, would be a burning shame, a lasting disgrace, and an impeachment of the patriotism and liberality of her citizens; and a stigma that we can not well consent, or afford to endure.

It has ever been the pride and boast of our nation that her armies were filled by volunteers; and the government was slow to order a draft, and still slower in enforcing it, hoping that the necessity for more soldiers, made so forcibly apparent by this unusual step, would be sufficient to arouse the people to a keener sense of the duty they owe to themselves, to the government of their choice, to posterity and the cause of liberty. This expectation is being nobly met in all sections of the country; and it is for you, and every townsman to say whether Westfield shall be found wanting.

Westfield, September, 15, 1862.

Respectfully Yours,

M. C. RICE,
GEO. W. PATTERSON,
T. D. STRONG,
JOHN G. HINCKLEY,
R. SMITH,

Central Committee.

EXTRA.

JAMESTOWN, JULY 10,—12 M.

1863

By the arrival to-day, of Lt. P. E. Bishop and Solomon Bristol, of the 3d Excelsior, wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, we are put in possession of a complete list of killed and wounded in Co. "B," and some interesting particulars of the fight, which we furnish for the information of many anxious friends:

KILLED—G. F. Hankin.

WOUNDED—Lt. P. E. BISHOP, neck, by a Minie ball.

W. H. LOVELL, leg amputated, doing exceedingly well.

C. J. LYONS, severely, right arm shattered.

Thomas O'Connell, breast, very severe.

Lester Hobert, Jr., leg, slight.

Chas. Parker, hand, slight.

S. L. Bristol, arm, slight.

John Thomas, missing—either killed, or wounded and a prisoner.

Elliot A. Homer, severely, leg.

All of these were injured on the 2d of July (Thursday.) The fight was the most terrible the Excelsior Brigade ever was in. Co "E," Dunkirk, lost 18, Co. "D," Dunkirk, lost 6 or 8, Co. "H," Dunkirk, also lost heavily.

The Brigade went into the fight with 1,700 and lost 1,100.

The wounded men, except those who have come home, were at Gettysburg and would probably be taken to Philadelphia.

Will you furnish me with the Obituary Notice of

to be placed in the Cemetery Book of "Obituary Notices." If you have not a copy of the paper containing, which you are willing to spare, you can have re-printed—which is preferable —on thin letter paper, at a trifling cost. In case the notice re-set, the form should be of the usual width of the columns in our village papers. As we desire to record as full a history as possible, of every person interred in Lake View Cemetery, provided the obituar not already been published, and you will have prepared and printed, shall receive a place in the book we have provided for that purpose.

Respectfully,
