d. Initial entry, or subsequent reentry following a break in AGR status, will be denied if the applicant has a nonwaivable disqualification under table 2-3. Waiver requests will not be considered.

e. AGR soldiers on active duty are not considered as having a break in Service from AGR status when under the provisions listed below. Once released from active duty, these soldiers are not subject to the above requirements to reenter the AGR program. The provisions are as follows:

- (1) Title 10 USC section 12301(d) or,
- (2) Full-time National Guard Duty under Title 32 USC section 502(f), who are ordered to active duty under the provisions of—

Section II

Procedures

2-3. Submission of applications

a. Soldiers may submit applications for initial entry in the AGR Program, or subsequent reentry in the AGR Program following a break, of two or more calendar days, in that status, to the authorities indicated below. These authorities will announce the procedures and the files or records required for inclusion with the application. The addressees will review the application and provide recommendations by endorsement. Applications from soldiers who do not qualify under table 2-1, or who have a nonwaivable disqualification under table 2-3, or who fail to meet any additional requirements prescribed by CNGB or CAR, will be disapproved and returned to the applicant. Soldiers who qualify under table 2-1, but have a waivable disqualification under table 2-2, will attach a request for the appropriate waiver to their applications. Applications will be submitted as follows:

(1) The ARNGUS soldiers applying for AD or FTNGD in AGR status will apply as prescribed by NGR 600-5 or NGR 600-10.

(2) The USAR soldiers applying for AD in an AGR status will apply as prescribed by AR 140-30. In addition, USAR recruiting duty applicants will be processed in accordance with AR 601-1.

b. The process and procedures for selecting and approving soldiers for subsequent assignments in the AGR Program will be prescribed in AR 140-30, NGR 600-5, and NGR 600-10, as appropriate. Any AGR soldiers who do not meet the qualifications of table 2-4, who are denied a waivable disqualification under table 2-5, or are disqualified under table 2-6 are not authorized and will not be considered for subsequent duty in the AGR Program.

2-4. Selection process

a. Boards convened under the direction of the CNGB or CAR, as appropriate will consider applicants for initial entry or subsequent reentry into the AGR Program, following a break in either status.

b. The AGR selection boards will be convened at least annually to consider new applicants. The CNGB and CAR will establish procedures to verify the eligibility of applicants for the AGR Program. Validated applicants will be placed on a list of soldiers eligible and available for consideration for order to AD or FTNGD in AGR status. Soldiers with a waivable disqualification, under table 2-2, may be selected, conditionally, by an AGR selection board. The requests for waiver accompanying their application will be submitted to the appropriate waiver authority shown in table 2-2, once the soldier has been identified to fill a vacancy for which otherwise qualified in the AGR Program. If the waiver is approved, the selection is validated and the soldier will be voluntarily ordered to an initial AGR tour. If the waiver is disapproved, the applicant's name will be removed from the list of selected soldiers. Requests for waivers for soldiers not selected by the AGR selection board will be returned without action.

2-5. Accession process

a. Orders will be published according to guidance issued by CNGB and CAR.

b. HRC-STL will publish orders placing USAR personnel on AD in an AGR status. The CNGB and State adjutant generals will publish orders placing ARNGUS personnel on AD in Titles 10 USC or 32 USC AGR status, respectively.

c. The NGB and OCAR will establish a ceiling, by grade and skill, on the number of soldiers that can enter the AGR Program each year. In addition to budgetary and other statutory constraints, this ceiling figure should be based on the number of qualified AGR soldiers available for assignment into projected position vacancies.

d. United States Army Reserve enlisted soldiers promoted prior to AGR entry may be advanced in grade and skill level, and considered for AGR duty at the higher grade without further board action, consistent with the needs of the AGR program. Soldiers are required to furnish a copy of promotion orders to HRC-STL before consideration at the higher grade. Advancement prior to AGR entry does not guarantee availability of an AGR position and may result in the soldier not being offered an AGR position.

2-6. Length of periods of AD or FTNGD

Army Guard Reserve soldiers will be ordered to AD or FTNGD for an initial 3-year period, as prescribed by NGRs 600-5 and 600-10 for ARNGUS and AR 140-30 for USAR.

a. A soldier will be stabilized during the initial period of duty in the AGR Program, except for the needs of the Service as determined by NGB or OCAR. Soldiers who do not achieve an acceptable level of performance during their initial AD or FTNGD tour may be released in accordance with chapter 5 of this regulation.

b. Subsequent periods of duty for AGR officers, to include warrant officers and commissioned warrant officers, will be for an indefinite period. However, unless an AGR officer is approved for retention (see paragraph 4-7), he or she will be released from AD or FTNGD when they have attained 20 years of AS, or in the case of warrant officers, beyond 20 years warrant officer AS, unless sooner released from AD or FTNGD under applicable law or regulation, or based on the needs of the Army. Subsequent enlisted soldier periods of duty will not exceed the terms of the soldier's enlistment or reenlistment agreement, or an extension of an enlistment or reenlistment agreement per NGR 600-200 for ARNGUS or AR 140-111 for USAR, as appropriate. An AGR soldier who accepts subsequent duty in the AGR Program is subject to involuntary reassignment or reattachment when the needs of the service dictate.

2-7. Military justice

a. Refer to AR 27-10 for guidance on the administration of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) for Title 10 USC AGR personnel.

b. ARNGUS personnel serving on FTNGD under Title 32 USC are not subject to the administration of the UCMJ, but may be subject to any code of military justice established by their state.

Chapter 3 Utilization

3-1. Authorized Active Guard Reserve duties

Personnel in the AGR Program will serve in modified table of organization and equipment (MTOE) or table of distribution and allowance (TDA) positions for the purpose of organizing, administering, recruiting, instructing, or training the RC. The RCs of the Army are the ARNGUS and the USAR. These duties, assignments, and attachments are based on law as follows:

- a. ARNGUS—

(1) Officers serving under 10 USC sections 10211, 10302(h), and 12402 are attached at the seat of Government, at headquarters responsible for Reserve affairs, on the Army Staff, or at NGB. They actively participate in the formulation, coordination, and administration of policies, plans, programs, and regulations pertaining to the RCs of the Army. These soldiers serve in a Federal status.

(2) Officers and enlisted personnel ordered to active duty in an AGR status under 10 USC section 12301(d) are attached to positions at all levels related to organizing, administering, recruiting, instructing, or training the RCs of the Army. These soldiers serve in a Federal status on AD.

b. USAR—

(1) Officers serving under 10 USC sections 10211, 10302(h), and 12402 are assigned at the seat of Government, at headquarters responsible for Reserve affairs, on the Army Staff, or OCAR. They actively participate in the formulation, coordination, and administration of policies, plans, programs, and regulations pertaining to the RCs of the Army. These soldiers serve in a Federal status.

(2) Officers and enlisted personnel ordered to active duty in an AGR status under 10 USC section 12301(d) are assigned to positions at all levels related to organizing, administering, recruiting, instructing, or training the RCs of the Army. These soldiers serve in a Federal status on AD.

c. ARNGUS and USAR authorized duties under 10 USC section 12310 (b) may include the following:

(1) Supporting operations or missions assigned in whole or in part to RCs.

(2) Supporting operations or missions performed or to be performed by a multicomponent unit (MCU) or a joint forces unit (JFU) that includes one or more RC units, or a member of a RC who is assigned or attached to a position in an element of the JFU.

(3) Advising the Secretary of Defense (the Secretary of the military departments), The Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the commanders of the unified combatant commands regarding RC matters.

(4) Performing duties in support of emergency preparedness programs to prepare for, or to respond to, any emergency involving the use of a weapon of mass destruction (WMD) pursuant to 10 USC section 12310(c).

d. ARNGUS soldiers serving on an AGR tour, under the provisions of 32 USC section 502(f)(2), are in positions related to organizing, administering, recruiting, instructing, or training the ARNGUS. These personnel serve in a State status on FTNGD.

3-2. Duty assignments and attachments

Permanent change of station (PCS) reassignments and reattachments are a necessary function of effective career management.

a. AGR personnel managers will consider each AGR soldier for assignment or attachment to progressively more responsible positions.

- (1) When serving under 32 USC, ARNGUS soldiers may be reassigned within their appropriate State boundaries.
- (2) When serving under 10 USC, ARNGUS soldiers may be reattached on a worldwide basis.
- (3) USAR AGR soldiers may be reassigned on a worldwide basis.
- (4) Reassignments or reattachments will be considered as the needs of the Army dictate. Priority may be given to voluntary requests for reassignments or reattachments that meet the needs of the Army.

b. NGB will establish guidelines to constrain PCS costs at the minimum essential level necessary to accomplish the objectives of the AGR Program. AGR soldiers will normally be reassigned or reattached in conjunction with—

- (1) Service school attendance.
- (2) Promotion.
- (3) Completion of a normal OCONUS assignment as prescribed in AR 614-30.

c. The Commander, HRC-STL (AHRC-AR), 1 Reserve Way, St. Louis, MO 53132-5200 will establish guidelines to constrain PCS costs at the minimum essential level necessary to accomplish the objectives of the AGR Program. AGR soldiers will normally be reassigned in conjunction with—

- (1) Service school attendance.
- (2) Promotion.
- (3) Completion of a normal OCONUS assignment as prescribed in AR 614-30.

d. ARNGUS soldiers on FTNGD under 32 USC section 502(f) will not be assigned for duty at the seat of Government; at headquarters responsible for Reserve affairs; on the Army Staff; at NGB; at Active Army agencies—headquarters or units (to include any other HQDA agencies), at SSAs, or at FOAs. As a condition of future or continued employment within a State's Title 32 AGR Program, an adjutant general may require a respective AGR soldier to serve on tour(s) of duty under the Title 10 AGR Program outside of their State geographic boundaries for career development or for the needs of the Army. These command directed reassignments or career development positions are on approved ARNGUS MTOE/TDAs. Prior to assignment to a tour of duty under the Title 10 AGR Program, the adjutant general must provide the soldier and the gaining organization, under the Title 10 AGR Program, the soldier's specific follow-on assignment within the soldier's respective State of origin.

e. AGR soldiers serving in positions for which they are over-graded and those pending promotion will be reattached or reassigned in the case of ARNGUS soldiers; or reassigned in the case of USAR soldiers, if eligible, on a priority basis.

3–3. Special assignments and attachments

a. CNGB will develop procedures for assigning or attaching AGR soldiers to command, Inspector General, command sergeant major, and first sergeant positions. Commander, HRC–STL (AHRC-AR), 1 Reserve Way, St. Louis, MO 53132-5200 will develop procedures for assigning AGR soldiers to command, Inspector General, command sergeant major, and first sergeant positions.

b. Procedures for assigning or attaching ARNGUS soldiers, or assigning USAR soldiers, to Inspector General positions must be coordinated with HQDA, Office of the Inspector General.

c. Procedures applicable to the USAR will be coordinated with the appropriate area command.

d. The number and length of such assignments or attachments of ARNGUS soldiers, or assignments of USAR soldiers, will be limited to avoid adversely affecting the upward mobility opportunities allowed other ARNGUS soldiers and USAR soldiers.

Chapter 4

Professional Education, Retention, Separation, and Evaluation

Section I

Professional Education

4–1. General

a. Those soldiers who are qualified for continuation in the AGR Program require management that provides progressively more responsible duty assignments or attachments and maximum use of military schooling. An orderly, well-managed program with opportunities for military education, progressively responsible assignments or attachments, and timely promotion is essential to attract and retain qualified personnel.

b. The officer education system (OES), warrant officer education system (WOES) and noncommissioned officer education system (NCOES) are integral parts of the RCs promotion system. Soldiers in the AGR Program must have opportunities for continuing military education. Active Guard Reserve soldiers are eligible to attend professional development, skill qualification, MOS reclassification, and refresher courses at accredited U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command (TRADOC); The Army School System schools offering certified; The Army Training System Courseware courses, as identified on the Army Training Requirements; and Resources System and the other Service's approved active duty schools. Personnel managers should identify those soldiers qualified for schooling and schedule their attendance in consonance with management and school selection policies and this regulation.

c. The CNGB and CAR will plan, program, and budget for a sufficient number of OES, WOES, and NCOES courses in a residence status to satisfy a portion of the AGR program requirements.

4–2. Senior service colleges and command and staff colleges

a. Active Guard Reserve officers will be selected for senior service colleges (SSC) and command and staff colleges (CSC) courses by centralized selection boards. Zones of consideration and application procedures will be announced annually. The NGB and OCAR will execute legal reviews to ensure their respective memoranda of instructions conform to HQDA selection board guidance, procedures, and policies.

b. Boards convened to consider candidates for resident SSC courses also consider applicants for the Army War College Distance Education Program.

c. Active Guard Reserve officers may complete CSC courses through extension courses if not selected for resident attendance.

4–3. Officer service school courses

a. The CNGB and CAR will plan, program, and budget for a sufficient number of Service school seats to satisfy AGR Program requirements.

b. AGR commissioned officers will attend the initial branch advanced courses in residence. Advanced courses required to produce additional AOCs may be completed by whatever means available. The preferred method for other skill producing courses and the Combined Arms and Services Staff School (CASSS) is resident training. These courses may be completed by whatever means available when mission requirements or other factors make it impractical for an officer to attend resident instructions.

c. Active Guard Reserve warrant officers will attend WOES courses in residence. Exceptions may be made by CNGB and CAR when mission requirements or other factors make it impractical for a warrant officer to attend resident instruction.

4-4. Reserve Component courses

a. Active Guard Reserve soldiers assigned to duties related to recruiting or retention will complete courses programmed and funded by NGB and OCAR. The USAR recruiters will attend courses prescribed by USAREC.

b. Active Guard Reserve soldiers assigned or attached to units of the Selected Reserve will be required to attend appropriate instruction at the—

(1) National Guard Professional Education Center (PEC), Camp Robinson, Arkansas, for ARNGUS soldiers.

(2) Army Reserve Readiness Training Center (ARRTC), Fort McCoy, Wisconsin, for USAR soldiers.

c. All AGR soldiers assigned or attached to Selected Reserve units as operators or maintenance personnel of new or displaced equipment will be scheduled for training. These soldiers should be scheduled by commanders and personnel managers to attend the appropriate Service school course or other training approved by TRADOC in conjunction with their selection for assignment or attachment.

Section II

Retention and Evaluation

4-5. Evaluation

The AGR soldiers will be integrated into their organization's officer evaluation report (OER) or noncommissioned officer evaluation report (NCOER) rating scheme based on position, or duty and chain of command.

a. Rating schemes will be established and published locally according to AR 623-105 and AR 623-205.

b. Personnel officers and servicing personnel service centers are responsible for processing and distributing OERs and NCOERs submitted on AGR soldiers.

c. The OERs and NCOERs will be filed in official military personnel file (OMPF) per AR 600-8-104 and centrally maintained for AGR soldiers serving on AD under 10 USC.

4-6. Retention and continuation in the program

The ARNGUS and USAR have a continuing need to retain the best-qualified soldiers in the program. Eligible soldiers should be encouraged to remain in AGR service.

a. The NGB may conduct qualitative and quantitative tour continuation boards for ARNGUS officers and enlisted soldiers on AD and FTNGD prior to the completion of initial or subsequent AGR tour(s). Specific instructions will be promulgated under paragraph 1-4(d).

b. After an administrative review, a USAR officer on active duty who meets the qualifications of table 2-4 will be offered retention in an indefinite status.

c. Enlisted soldiers will be qualitatively considered for retention in the AGR Program.

(1) ARNGUS soldiers serving on FTNGD under 32 USC are subject to the Qualitative Retention Program prescribed by AR 135-205.

(2) USAR soldiers serving on AGR will be screened for denial of continued USAR service under the USAR AGR Qualitative Management Program prescribed by AR 635-200.

d. Other boards designed to select the best qualified AGR soldiers in specific grades for subsequent attachments (USAR) or tour continuation (ARNGUS) in a reduced number of continuing reattachments or reassignments, in the same or higher grade, may be convened, at the discretion of the CNGB or CAR as required, under policy promulgated under paragraph 1-4. Such policy may provide—

(1) That boards convened for promotion or school selection purposes offer recommendations for retention to the appropriate authority.

(2) That CNGB convene boards to recommend retention of ARNGUS AGR officers and enlisted soldiers who have qualified for a 20-year nonregular retirement under 10 USC, chapter 1223. Enlisted soldiers and officers released from AD tours will be returned to the military status they held immediately prior to entering AD at their State or territory of origin. The subsequent tour will commence immediately on expiration of the current AGR tour.

e. Officers and enlisted soldiers who are not disqualified under table 2-5, and satisfy continuation requirements by NGB or OCAR will remain on AD or FTNGD under paragraph 2-6 if an appropriate AGR duty position assignment or attachment is available. The subsequent tour will commence immediately on expiration of the current tour.

(1) Officer and enlisted soldiers who do not possess the qualifications prescribed in table 2-4, or are disqualified under tables 2-5 or 2-6, will be released from AD or FTNGD, or discharged, according to applicable regulations.

(2) Enlisted soldiers selected for removal from AGR status by a qualitative board (4-6c above), ARNGUS soldiers not recommended for AGR continuation under continuation boards (paragraphs 4-6a, c, and d above) and soldiers subject to voluntary or involuntary removal from an AGR status will be released from AD or FTNGD, or discharged, according to applicable regulations (see paragraph 5-1).

(3) Procedures for issuing orders for subsequent periods of AD or FTNGD in an AGR status will be established by policy promulgated by NGB or OCAR per paragraph 1-4. This policy must also provide for the procedures to be followed by personnel managers in the assignment or attachment process.

f. AGR soldiers covered by the retention provisions of 10 USC sections 12646(e), 12686, or AR 600–8–24 will be retained on AD or FTNGD until completion of 20 years of service qualifying for retirement under 10 USC sections 3911 or 3914, unless release is voluntary or approved by the Secretary of the Army.

4–7. Extension on active duty or FTNGD beyond 20 years AS a. AGR officers, to include warrant officers and commissioned warrant officers, will be released from AD (serving under 10 USC) or FTNGD (serving under 32 USC) when they have attained 20 years of AS, according to the policies prescribed in AR 600-8-24 (10 USC) or NGR 600-5 (32 USC), unless approved for extension, under the policy prescribed in paragraph b below. Enlisted AS is excluded in the computation of accrued years of service for the mandated release from active duty of AGR warrant officers or commissioned warrant officer's, unless the needs of the Army require a warrant officer's or commissioned warrant officer's separation after attaining 20 years of AS.

b. AGR commissioned officers and warrant officers may be retained on AD beyond 20 years of AS through a board process, convened at least annually.

(1) Consideration of eligible officers for retention is automatic, as such; officers need not apply for retention consideration.

(2) Time in grade requirements, for retirement purposes, will be in accordance with the provisions of section 1370, Title 10 USC.

(3) DCS, G-1 (DAPE-MPO)–

(a) Will manage the retention board process by adhering to Department of Army board procedures.

(b) Is responsible for writing the memoranda of instruction, recessing boards, and processing the results to C, NGB, the CAR, or the ASA (M & RA) as appropriate.

(4) The ASA (M & RA)–

(a) Has delegated the authority to C, NGB, and the CAR to approve board results for extension up to 22 years of AS for their respective component. This authority will not be further delegated.

(b) Will approve all board results for extension beyond 22 years of AS up to mandatory removal date (MRD).

(5) Extensions may be approved in increments of up to three years.

c. Officers and warrant officers who are extended under the provisions of paragraph b above will be released at the expiration of their retention period under AR 600-8-24 (10 USC) or NGR 600-5 (32 USC), unless further retained in a separate action under paragraph b above, or sooner released or separated under applicable law or regulations. Officers and warrant officers will not be retained in an active status beyond their established MRD.

d. Enlisted AGR soldiers–

(1) If ARNGUS, will be released on achieving 20 years AS unless retained for an incremental period by an AS tour continuation board as promulgated by the authority listed in paragraph 1-4d.

(2) If USAR, will be extended under the provisions promulgated by the authority listed in paragraph 1-4e.

e. All enlisted soldiers will be released on achieving the retention control points for their grade (regardless of availability of controlled grade). Retention control points and AS tour continuation procedures will be promulgated in policy under paragraph 1–4d or 1–4e, as applicable.

4–8. Enlisted soldiers appointed as commissioned or warrant officers

Enlisted soldiers in the program who are appointed as commissioned or warrant officers may be continued on AGR duty in the AGR Program, provided a position commensurate with their grade and skill is available.
