Our Mission: to bring job-seeking military veterans together with hiring companies to fill open positions worldwide.

Transition Assistance: We are not merely a job board or a recruiting service: we are dedicated to providing both proactive assistance for veterans and their families with their transition back into the civilian workplace, and assistance for companies with open positions in fulfilling their recruitment needs.

To receive job updates via text message, join here:

Connecting Jobs to Veterans: Open positions, both stateside and overseas, may be viewed at the Careers Directory on our website www.military-civilian.com. Some positions require security clearances: others are open to all including spouses and family members.

Post Your Resumé: Please join Military-Civilian resume data base, and sign up for text alerts for jobs that match your resumé profile and desired work locations, so you only get the jobs you are interested in.

When you get employed, reach back and help a fellow Service men and women over the wall. What goes around, comes around.

Help when and where you can.

You, a family member or friend could be next to need a job. Please share with friends, family and others in your social networks.
