

Do you face unique workforce or organizational development challenges?

If you are a CSEA leader or New York State manager, consider the:

Labor-Management Workforce Development Grants

For statewide and local labor-management committees to increase organizational effectiveness, improve services or work processes, and enhance employee job skills.

Grants up to $30,000 can be used to address large scale issues in the workplace caused by:

- Reorganization
- New Technology
- Changing Customer Needs
- New Legal or Regulatory Requirements
- Specialized Job Skill Training Needs

All proposed projects must have the support of CSEA and management, and meet criteria for awarding grants.

To apply for a grant, CSEA local presidents and agency/facility management representatives should consult with Partnership staff while developing their proposal. Grants are reviewed on an ongoing basis as funding permits.
