Special Observance
SEPTEMBER
Hispanic Heritage Month
(15 Sep - 15 Oct 2012)

When and Why is Hispanic Heritage Month Celebrated?

National Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated in recognition of the historical and cultural contributions of Hispanic Americans. This national observance was first established by Public Law 90-498, approved September 17, 1968 by the 90th Congress. Public Law 90-468 authorized the president to proclaim National Hispanic Heritage Week each year. On August 17, 1988, the 100th Congress enacted Public Law 100-402, which extended the observance from a week to a month. The annual observance is now a 31-day period beginning on September 15 and ending on October 15.

The months of September and October cover a wide range of independence days for Latin American countries. Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Nicaragua all celebrate their independence on September 15. Mexico celebrates its independence on September 16 and Chile on September 18. El Día de la Raza (Columbus Day) is observed on October 12. For purposes of this celebration the term Hispanic includes persons with ancestry from the countries of Argentina, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Cuba, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Panama, Peru, Puerto Rico, Spain, Uruguay and Venezuela. The theme for Hispanic Heritage Month is selected by the National Council of Hispanic Program Managers with the help of a wide variety of contributions from all interested parties.

However, employee groups often include other Latin American countries during the celebration. This is, Caribbean and South American countries such as Brazil, Belize, the Virgin Islands, etc.

Special Observance

National Disability Employment Awareness Month (1 - 31 October 2012)

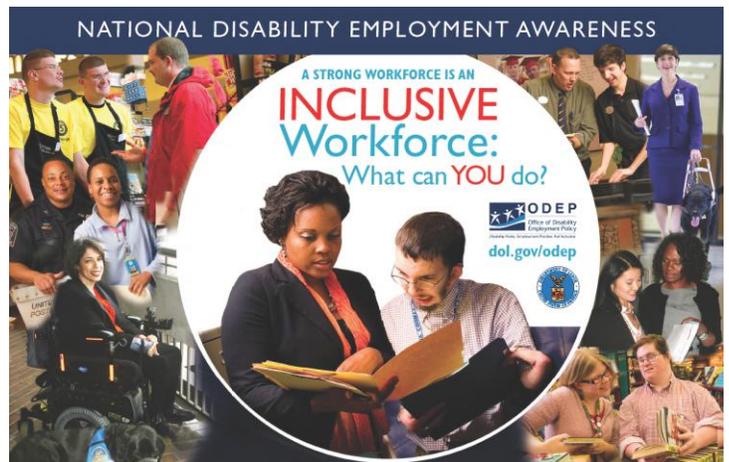

In October, Americans observe National Disability Employment Awareness Month by paying tribute to the accomplishments of the men and women with disabilities whose work helps keep the nation's economy strong and by reaffirming their commitment to ensure equal opportunity for all citizens.

This effort to educate the public about the issues related to disability and employment began in 1945, when Congress enacted Public Law 176, declaring the first week of October each year as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week. In 1962, the word "physically" was removed to acknowledge the employment needs and contributions of individuals with all types of disabilities. Some 25 years later, Congress expanded the week to a month and changed the name to National Disability Employment Awareness Month.

Local Resource:

Center for Disability Services
314 South Manning Boulevard
Albany, NY 12208
(518) 437-5700

Service Area: We provide innovative services and expert care at over 80 locations throughout 9 counties of Upstate New York, including: Albany, Columbia, Greene, Fulton, Montgomery, Rensselaer, Schenectady, Schoharie, and Southern Saratoga.

Our History: The Center for Disability Services was founded in 1942 by parents of children with Cerebral Palsy to secure medical consultation and therapy services. We have grown from a tiny nursery school into a leading provider of innovative services and expert care for individuals with disabilities. Over the years our name has changed—from United Cerebral Palsy Association of the Capital Region and the C.P. Center to the Center for the Disabled, and now Center for Disability Services—but our mission and commitment to the community have remained steadfast.

Special Observance

National American Indian Heritage Month (1 - 30 November 2012)

National American Indian Heritage Month celebrates and recognizes the accomplishments of the peoples who were the original inhabitants, explorers and settlers of the United States.

“National American Indian Heritage Month” had its origins in 1986 when Congress passed Pub. L. 99-471 (PDF, 93KB) which authorized and requested the President to proclaim the week of November 23-30, 1986 as “American Indian Week.” As directed by Congress, President Reagan issued Presidential Proclamation 5577 \(external link\) in November 1986 proclaiming the first American Indian Week. Both law and proclamation recognized the American Indians as the first inhabitants of the lands that now constitute the United States as well as making mention of their contributions to American society:

Did you know?

- Many of the foods we eat and the medicines and remedies we use were introduced by Indians.
- Indians were the first to raise turkeys, llamas, guinea pigs, and honeybees for food.
- More than one highway follows an Indian trail.
- Indians make contributions in every area of endeavor and American life, and our literature and all our arts draw upon Indian themes and wisdom.

Monthly EEO Training

What is Race/Color Discrimination?

Race discrimination involves treating someone (an applicant or employee) unfavorably because he/she is of a certain race or because of personal characteristics associated with race (such as hair texture, skin color, or certain facial features). Color discrimination involves treating someone unfavorably because of skin complexion.

Race/color discrimination also can involve treating someone unfavorably because the person is married to (or associated with) a person of a certain race or color or because of a person's connection with a race-based organization or group, or an organization or group that is generally associated with people of a certain color.

Race/Color Discrimination & Work Situations

The law forbids discrimination when it comes to any aspect of employment, including hiring, firing, pay, job assignments, promotions, layoff, training, fringe benefits, and any other term or condition of employment.

Race/Color Discrimination & Harassment

It is unlawful to harass a person because of that person's race or color.

Harassment can include, for example, racial slurs, offensive or derogatory remarks about a person's race or color, or the display of racially-offensive symbols. Although the law doesn't prohibit simple teasing, offhand comments, or isolated incidents that are not very serious, harassment is illegal when it is so frequent or severe that it creates a hostile or offensive work environment or when it results in an adverse employment decision (such as the victim being fired or demoted).

How do we stop discrimination?

This is a difficult question to answer. One way to stop discrimination is for everyone to live by the Golden Rule:

"TREAT OTHERS HOW YOU WISH TO BE TREATED."

Joint Diversity Corner

Special Emphasis Program Council (SEPC)

This council is a joint initiative of the full-time support personnel appointed in Special Emphasis Program Manager positions that promote the participation and advancement of the members of the group within the DMNA that they represent.

Mission:

To improve the status of minorities and protective classes. The ultimate responsibility for the SEPC belongs to management and leadership. However, Special Emphasis Program Managers (SEPMs) are responsible for assisting management in actions that will enhance the employment status of these groups.

Vision:

Analysis, Advise, Liason and Advocate

Goal:

SEPMs recognize the optimum readiness of the New York Air and Army Guard depends on the active inclusion of all groups supporting excellence in military and civilian performance.

Please welcome our newest SEPC member:

SFC Barbara Tompkins, Alternate African American Program Manager

Program/Course Description: This course develops a base of knowledge and skills that allow graduates to serve as effective collateral-duty and full-time Special Emphasis Program Managers (Federal Women's, Black Employment, Hispanic Employment, Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander Employment, Asian Employment, American Indian/Alaskan Native Employment, and Program for People with Disabilities Program). It focuses on the inter/intrapersonal and organizational aspects of EEO and program management skills. Training introduces the causes and effects of discrimination, EEO programs for federal employees/applicants for employment, civilian personnel/human resource management and managing diversity issues. It concentrates on the roles and responsibilities of Special Emphasis Program Managers, analyzing EEO data (MD 715), planning, and managing effective Special Emphasis Programs.
