THE TWENTY-SIXTH REGIMENT N. Y. V., COL. RICHARDSON.

Whitestown Seminary Corps, Capt. Winsor.

now took up the line of march.

you will bear with you the grateful remembrance of battles. Your thinned ranks give us a reason to feel we may have been visited by a heavier fate than others, but we hope not. It is a happy reflection that our country is now able to convert the expenditure of means in peace into the expenditure of means in the arts of peace.

of the history of our country. That record shall be read by succeeding generations, and their griefs as well as their joys shall be remembered. They have been actors in many scenes of the most momentous period of their country's existence. They followed you with breathless interest under the brilliant career of the field officers occupying the center of each end.

The tables constituted a huge parallelogram of silver, brass, and some were bound before the flag. The flag of the 26th is placed with great pride, and has passed through 11 battles, and it is now set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The flag also has the flag of Ohio, which was presented by the Ohio Legislature, and the flag of Chicago, presented by the citizens of Chicago, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of New York, which was presented by the New York Legislature, and the flag of Philadelphia, presented by the citizens of Philadelphia, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Pennsylvania, which was presented by the Pennsylvania Legislature, and the flag of Reading, presented by the citizens of Reading, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Connecticut, which was presented by the Connecticut Legislature, and the flag of New Haven, presented by the citizens of New Haven, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Massachusetts, which was presented by the Massachusetts Legislature, and the flag of Boston, presented by the citizens of Boston, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Maine, which was presented by the Maine Legislature, and the flag of Portland, presented by the citizens of Portland, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Vermont, which was presented by the Vermont Legislature, and the flag of Bennington, presented by the citizens of Bennington, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of New Jersey, which was presented by the New Jersey Legislature, and the flag of Newark, presented by the citizens of Newark, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Delaware, which was presented by the Delaware Legislature, and the flag of Wilmington, presented by the citizens of Wilmington, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Maryland, which was presented by the Maryland Legislature, and the flag of Baltimore, presented by the citizens of Baltimore, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Virginia, which was presented by the Virginia Legislature, and the flag of Richmond, presented by the citizens of Richmond, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of the District of Columbia, which was presented by the District of Columbia Legislature, and the flag of Washington, presented by the citizens of Washington, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of the United States, which was presented by the United States Government, and the flag of the Nation, presented by the citizens of the Nation, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of the World, which was presented by the World, and the flag of Humanity, presented by the citizens of Humanity, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Liberty, which was presented by the Liberty, and the flag of Freedom, presented by the citizens of Freedom, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Peace, which was presented by the Peace, and the flag of Union, presented by the citizens of Union, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Justice, which was presented by the Justice, and the flag of Law, presented by the citizens of Law, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Liberty and Union, which was presented by the Liberty and Union, and the flag of Liberty and Justice, presented by the citizens of Liberty and Justice, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Liberty, Union, and Peace, which was presented by the Liberty, Union, and Peace, and the flag of Liberty, Union, and Justice, presented by the citizens of Liberty, Union, and Justice, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.

The 26th has the flag of Liberty, Union, Justice, and Peace, which was presented by the Liberty, Union, Justice, and Peace, and the flag of Liberty, Union, Justice, and Law, presented by the citizens of Liberty, Union, Justice, and Law, and both of these flags have been set upon the field of the Crisis. The sight of the staff and flag is cheering to all.