COL. RICE, OF THE 44TH PROMOTED TO A BRIGA-DIER GENERALSHIP.—The gallant and heroic Col. J. C. Rice, of our 44th (Ellsworth) Regiment, was, on Thursday, presented with the commission of a Brigadier General. His best of friends in this city will rejoice at the advance of this brave officer.

THE CORNING LIGHT INFANTRY.—S. W. Stry­ ker has been appointed Lieut. Colonel of the Corning Light Infantry, headquarters at the Delavan House Block. Col. Stryker was formerly Colonel of the Ellsworth Regiment, and has seen service. He is universally admit­ to be an excellent disciplinarian and thorough soldier. The Colonel of the Regiment is James I. Byrne, of New York. Here is an excellent opportunity to enlist in a fine regiment that will soon be filled to the maximum standard. The Captain who brings the first full ccompany will be entitled to be appointed Maior of the Regiment.

COL. JAMES C. RICE MADE A BRIGA-DIER

GENERAL.—Our citizens will be pleased to learn that our former townsman, Col. JAMES

C. RICE, has been made a Brigadier General.

He has earned his honor by his long service, and by his gallantry in every battle fought by the Army of the Potomac. He originally went out as a subaltern in a New York Regiment, was engaged in the first battle of Bull

Run, was subsequently promoted to the Lieut.

Colonelcy of the 44th, of which,soon after going into active service, he was a made Colonel, and of which, except when acting as Brigadier,

he has had the immediate command through all its glorious history. We share fully in the general satisfaction with which this announcement will be received.

ONE more of the "bravest and best" of our young men has been stricken down in the deadly shock of battle. GEORGE B. WOLcott, of Co. K, 44th N. Y., was instantly killed in the battle of Gettysburg last week, by a rifle ball in the neck. He entered the service last summer with some of his fellow students of the Normal School at Albany, and has been a devoted, earnest and faithful Soldier of the Republic. He was a noble, Christian young man, and very many in this county learn the mournful news of his death with emotions of depth and unutterable sorrow.

The Penn Yan Monitor records the death of Geo. W. Wood, of that village, a member of the 44th N. Y. Regiment, who was instantly killed at Gettysburg.

He entered the service last summer from the Normal School at Albany, in company with quite a number from our county.

A meeting will be held at the hotel of D.

mond in Poolville, on Monday evening, July 11, 7 o'clock P. M., to take measures for send­ representative from the town of Hamilton to the Ellsworth Regiment.

To the Town and Ward Ellsworth Association of the State of New York.

The Executive Committee of the State Ellsworth Association announces that the General Government have accepted the "People's Ellsworth Regiment," but with the condition that the Regiment shall be ready for marching or dispatch within twenty one days from the 24th ult.

This condition the Committee find themselves unable to comply with, in consequence of the towns of the State having failed as yet to respond to their call, and thus furnish the men and means to make up the Regiment. Under these circumstances, the Committee have resolved to call together the men already selected, and to allow the towns which have furnished men and means, to select as many more men, from any town in their several counties, as they shall choose, up to the number of five men each, without raising any additional funds, and to muster them into service under the call of the Governor for 25,000 men. (Provided, that each man selected shall come up to the standard of qualification, herebefore prescribed by the Committee.)

By availing themselves of this opportunity, the Government will clothe and arm the men, and thus relieve the Committee from that expense; and the soldiers of this regiment can avail themselves of the provisions of General Order No. 15, which is as follows:—

"Every volunteer, non-commissioned officer, private, musician and artificer, who enters the service of the United States under this plan, shall be paid at the rate of fifty cents, and if a Cavalry volunteer twenty-five cents additional, in lieu of rations, for every twenty miles of travel from his home to the place of muster, the distance to be measured by the shortest usually travelled route; and when honorably discharged, an allowance, at the same rate, from the place of his discharge to his home and an addition thereto the sum of one hundred dollars.

"Any volunteer who may be received into the service of the United States under this plan, and who may be wounded or otherwise disabled in the service, shall be entitled to the benefits which may have been or may be conferred upon persons disabled in the regular service, and the legal heirs of such as die or may be killed in service. In addition to all allowances of pay and allowances, shall receive the sum of one hundred dollars.

"With the money collected in the various towns and paid into the treasury of this Association, under our first plan of organization, the Executive Committee will purchase for the use of the regiment such additional articles of uniform, arms and wearing apparel, as will add to the comfort and efficiency of the men of this regiment.

"Any town desiring to be represented in the regiment, and not herefore having taken action, can select a man, or raising the sum of twenty dollars, or as many men as they choose at that rate but all men selected must comply with our standard of qualification, etc.

"That the soldier to be selected in each town and ward be an unmarried man; not less than six feet eight inches in height, able bodied, and not to exceed thirty years of age, and of good moral character.

"Arrangements have been made by which it is expected that the pay of the men will commence the day after their arrival in this city. All men selected before the 8th day of August will report themselves for duty on that day, at the City Hall, in Albany.

"All selected after that date will report themselves for duty at the camp of the regiment, in Albany, on the 20th of August.

We earnestly appeal to the patriotic citizens of every town in the State to furnish a representative for this regiment, and ask our young men to come forward and give their aid to the country in defense of its time honored flag.
The People's Ellsworth Regiment.—Four of the companies belonging to this Regiment held an election yesterday, which resulted in the selection of Sturkhe, Revere, Chapin and Conner, as Captains; and Lara- bene, McRoberts and Sidway, as First Lieutenants. The proceedings were conducted with entire unanimity, and the very best feeling prevails among the men.

The Regiment is steadily filling up, every day bringing additional members from different quarters of the State, and those now assembled at the barracks come up fully to the standard originally adopted as the passport to admission. They possess all the physical qualifications that could be required, and are pronounced by all who have visited their quarters to be the genuine material for soldiers. They are under drill six hours during the day, instructed by experienced and competent officers, most of them having belonged to the original Chicago Zouaves. Their leisure hours are devoted in great part to athletic exercises—fencing, boxing, ball-playing—while their evenings are passed in singing, a glee club having been formed, in aid of which some tuneful citizen has furnished them with a melodeon and a hundred song books.

They all read the newspapers and keep posted up in the progress of the war. In the ranks are quite a number of graduates of Yale, Union and other colleges. Profanity and intemperance are utterly tabooed among them. Indeed, although they have been together but a week, a temperance organization has already been established. So far, the Regiment is all that can be desired, and bids fair to be an honor to themselves and the State. (Aug. 15, 1861)

Ellsworth Regiment.

At a meeting of the People's Ellsworth Regiment, held at the Barracks on Monday last, Mssrs. I. Russel, S. W. Tanner and E. A. Nash were appointed a Committee to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting. The following preamble and resolutions were presented and unanimously adopted:

1. Resolved, That we, the members of the People's Ellsworth Regiment, hereby express our appreciation of the ballad entitled "Ellsworth's Avengers," and tender our sincere thanks to A. Laura Hudson, its talented authoress. The song finds a ready response in every heart, and is worthy of him of whom it is written.

2. Resolved, That we extend our thanks to George S. Dawson for his generous donation of a sufficient number of copies of the "Ellsworth's Avengers" for the Glee Club of this Regiment.

3. Resolved, That a copy of the above Resolutions be forwarded to A. Laura Hudson, and a copy of the same be published in the city papers.

J. RUSSELL, S. W. TANNER, E. A. NASH, Committee.

C. ADDISON WOODWORTH, President.

CHARLES D. GRANNIS, Secretary.

ALBANY, August 15, 1861.

The People's Ellsworth Regiment.—This Regiment has now about four hundred good men in camp and about two hundred more are being raised for it.

To fill up the Regiment, much exertion on the part of its friends will be required, and the Executive Committee earnestly urge every town in the State to send forward their representatives at once.

We shall receive daily all that are sent according to our last circular, until the regiment is full, which it probably will not be earlier than the 10th of September.

Will our friends in the counties of Wyoming, Steuben, Tompkins, Monroe, Oneida, Orleans, Oswego, Broome and Genesee take action to send forward their representatives at once?

For two centuries that portion of the Conti-ment included in the loyal States of our Union, has led all the people upon it in their march towards Liberty organised into a free society and a Republican Government. We have, one by one, put away from us every obstacle to success in this great experiment. We conquered the savage tribes that resisted our occupation of the Garden of the New World. We drove back the two leading powers of Europe, France and England, from their early attempts to keep us in a state of provincial dependence.

We abolished a national church; a hereditary aristocracy; and set up every bondman on our soil. We invited the people of every country and climate to abide with us. We have subdued nature and become prosperous, intelligent, powerful; and have now declared before God and man that these United States of America, as the leading civilization on this Continent, shall continue forever to be what our sainted fathers saw in vision, and wrote out for us in words little short of inspiration.

But now the leading class in eleven states of this Union have revolted against this. They declare that our idea of society, a Government of the whole people moulded by the highest influence of modern times, is a failure; they have formally, and solemnly set themselves to destroy our nationality. Not in any hasty passion, but by long preparation, by elaborate conspiracy, by the forms of revolution, they have torn away from us, erected a hostile Government, and declared war against us. We forbear with them as long as we suppose they were madmen; now we see they are sane, determined in their preference for despotism.

We know what they are about. We now see that the reigning class in these seceded States is only the old Satan of despotic society, which has crushed out the liberties of every people in the old world. What the Pharaohs were to the Hebrews; what Philip was to Greece; what the Caesars were to Rome; what the Bourbons were to France; and the Stuarts to England; and the Hapsburg to Hungary; and Benza to Naples; what every tyrant in ancient or modern times has ever been to the mass of the people; that is the league of generals and politicians and priests which has elected itself into that hideous combination, the so-called Confederate States of America!
It is no new thing that this Government pro-desses to do; its enterprises is as old as the world and dates back to that day when Satan erected the first despotism on the virgin soil of Eden.
It is simply another attempt of the everlasting enemy of mankind to overthrow a nation that promises to become the leader of a Continent and the light of the world. Jefferson Davis and the men arrayed with him are nothing but for the war; their object is to conquer us; their war is as old as the world; and it is forever doomed to failure.

We now see that the like of them have succeeded in every age in subduing and governing the people. They see that every attempt on this Continent to found a Republic has failed. They have succeeded in conquering the people in eleven States of this Union, and throwing four other States into civil war. They have every despotic influence in the world on their side, from the oldest memorial that wears a crown, to the seedesti peny-a-liner that disposes of the American Union over his chop and pot of beer in his thundering leader in the London Times.

They have an army of 500,000 men besieging the entire border of the loyal States; why should not they succeed?

My friends and fellow-citizens, they will succeed unless we, the entire people of the loyal States of this Union, unite at once, and concentrate every energy and appliance God has given us to put them down. They don't want negotiation; they don't want any compromise; they don't want peace; but before any other things they want victory. They want to subdue this entire Nation to their style of government. They want to brush away our whole order of society and establish in its place that which now curses the old world and has cursed it for four thousand years. They will try their utmost to subdue our whole country. If they fail in this they will try as hard to subdue the land; and the Hapsburg to Hungary; and Benza to Naples; what every tyrant in an-countern, and establish upon its ruins an aristocratical Government wherein the few shall forever rule the many. These men see that the like of them have succeeded in every age in subduing and governing the people. They conflict. Somebody must be utterly defeated along the only path to a settlement of this great beyond hope of a rally before there can be any whole duty in the field; if we who stay behind do our whole duty at home; if every rifle, holds himself as a minute man for his man who can swing a sword or shoulder a money for the order of his Government; if every ways has been the guiding angel to every leads man in this great work, as woman al­the altar of his native land; if every woman every man of gifts and culture lays them all on achievement of humanity; if we can forget roic, invincible band of brothers, we shall con­and our self-seeking, and close up as one he­tory that shall bury these satellites of despot­quer. We can have a complete victory—a vic­ism so deep that no son of theirs, to the re­most generation, will dare to ask, “where is their grave?” We can make the name of Benedict Arnold will emerge into a sort of respectability. We can so effectually dispose of this last attempt to crush the peo­ple of the United States, that whoever hence­turn his back even on the region of the border ruffian and the wilds of Texas in disgust and to submit to the Government, and obey what­despair. We can bring every revolted State ever administration the people establish at Washington: and we can make that Govern­ment such an unco as our blessed lathers fore­saw—a government founded on the golden rule of equal justice to all mankind.

The People's Ellsworth Regiment.

Its Origin, Rise and Progress.

From the Albany Morning Express, 1858

Ermie E. Ellsworth was born near Mechanic­ville, in Saratoga county, N. Y., April 23, 1837, and was, therefore, at the time of his death only twenty-three years of age. In his early youth he manifested strong military inclinations. He lived at home until twelve or thirteen years of age, during which time he received a good com­mon-school education. He was always a close clerk in a store in that city. But the narrow perseverance, and energy, he soon achieved an honorable position in that city. The exciting and on the 19th of March, 1856, the Chicago Ca­drists were organized into a company, under the National Guard Battalion of Chicago, and on the 19th of March, 1856, the Chicago Cad­ets were organized into a company, under the direction of the Battalion, the object being to secure the services of the very best members of the Battalion, and those most likely to enter into the spirit of the work, in order that the new or­ganization might extol all others in the country in drilling in every branch of tactics. Capt. Ellsworth was chosen to the command, and he and the company were instructed in their duties by the present Rebel General of the Kentucky forces, Robert Buckner, who was then in command of the Battalion. After close attention to military study and drill, the Cadets made an ex­cursion to Burlington in 1856. The novelty of their drill, their picturesque dress, and the precision of their evolutions, attracted universal attention, not only from military men, but the public gen­erally; and Zouave military organizations spring­ing into life in nearly all the Northern, Eastern and Western States...
On the return of the Zouaves to Chicago, Ellsworth relinquished the command, and applied himself to the study of law, in President Lincoln's office. He was very much beloved by the President, and accompanied him to Washington, and was one of the most active and attentive of Mr. Lincoln's traveling companions. It was expected that he would be placed in some important position in the War Department, but it is not probable that such a position would have been in accordance with his desires. Immediately upon the outbreak of the war he called around him several of his old comrades in the Chicago Cadets, all of whom took charge of companies and labored diligently in perfecting the organization.

In due time the Regiment proceeded to Washington, and were assigned a position of great importance and danger at Alexandria. They entered the town on the morning of the 24th of May, and soon after landing Col. Ellsworth observed acession flag waving over the Marshall House. He entered the hotel with a few men, and enquired of a person whom he met who put it up. The man replied he did not know, that he was only a boarder there. Col. Ellsworth, Lieut. Wisner, the Chaplain of the Regiment, Mr. House, a volunteer aid, and four privates, went up to the roof, when Col. Ellsworth cut down the flag. The party were returning down the stairs, proceed by private Brownell. As they left the attic, the man who said he was a boarder, but who proved to be the landlord, Jackson, was met in the hall, having a double barrelled gun, which he levelled at Francis E. Jackson, was met in the hall, having a double barrelled gun, which he levelled at Francis E. Brownell, one of the Zouaves. The latter struck up the gun with his musket, when Jackson pulled both triggers, the contents lodging in the body of Ellsworth. Brownell, with the quickness of lightning, levelled his musket at Jackson and fired, the ball striking him on the bridge of the nose, cutting through the skull, killing him instantly. As he fell Brownell thrust him through his bayonet, and the assassin immediately expired.

It is unnecessary we should refer to the deep sorrow and gloom which hung over the loyal States for weeks after this melancholy tragedy. It fired the blood of the North, and a cry for "Revenge!" went up from every city, town, village and hamlet. On the morning of the 25th of May the Zouaves called for vengence on the accursed traitors who were seeking to destroy the Government, not only, but to assassinate true and loyal citizens wherever they could be found. The feeling increased and became widespread, and the people resolved that the death of the gallant Ellsworth should be most terribly avenged.

On the afternoon of the 25th of May, the day succeeding the murder of Col. Ellsworth, a communication appeared in the Evening Journal, over the signature of "Histruction," from which we made the following extract:

Let the People of New York, his native State mingle with their tears, practical plans for avenging his death. Let each town and ward, in every county and city in the State, provide by subscriptions of $1 or less, for the complete equipment of one man, to be selected from among citizens and Zouaves who were members of the Regiment, and were quartered at the Barracks, under a General Order, which provided that all regiments or companies raised in the State should be under the direction and control of the Governor. To facilitate the work of organization, the Executive Committee modified their original requirements, which had the effect to cause renewed activity.
Ellsworth, and was one of his most devoted and effect the regiment in discipline and efficiency. Colonel Stryker is quite a young man, but 26 years of age, and yet he is every inch a soldier and an officer. He was born in Harrington, Somerset Co., N. J. In 1854 he moved to Chicago, where he united himself with the National Guard Battalion, which gave life to the celebrated Cadets. He joined the Cadets with Colonel Guard Battalion, which gave life to the celebrated Cadets. He joined the Cadets with Colonel Stryker was among the first to respond; and he, together with others of the Cadets, accepted positions as Lieutenants for the express purpose of instructing the men in the school of the soldier, and perfecting them in drill and discipline. Col. S. was chosen 1st Lieutenant of Co. B, and besides was acting Adjutant of the regiment at the time of Ellsworth's death. He came on with the remains, and had charge of them until they were interred. As soon as he was informed of the proposed organization of the Ellsworth regiment, he resigned from the 1st Fire Zouaves and applied for an appointment in the new regiment. The Executive Committee, after very careful deliberation, unanimously resolved that the then Lieut. Stryker was just the man for the-Colonelcy, and assigned him that position. The wisdom of the Committee has been most clearly demonstrated. They could not have found a man who could have given more general satisfaction to the members of the regiment, nor one better qualified for the highly responsible duties of commanding officer. Thoroughly skilled in military knowledge, a man of undoubted courage, and a rigid disciplinarian, he has succeeded in bringing his regiment, already, to a state of perfection that would hardly be looked for in an organization a year old. He has the faculty of making himself thoroughly understood by his men, and while he demands a most strict obedience to orders, he at the same time personally looks after the welfare of his men, and by his friendly intercourse with them wins their confidence and respect. It may well be said "he is the right man in the right place."

After Col. Stryker took command he immediately commenced drilling those at the Barracks, and perfecting the details, of companies, in order that everything might move harmoniously, and result in the complete success of the undertaking. As recruits arrived daily they were assigned places, and at once began the study of a soldier. And so the work proceeded, day after day, until the ranks of the Regiment were filled up to the full number, ten hundred and forty-six men—men of character, standing and intelligence, such men as we might well believe to be the representatives of the people of the State of New York.

Albany, Erie, and Herkimer counties each furnished more members than any other single county in the State, the two former furnishing a full company each, and the latter furnishing a portion of a company. Nearly every county in the State is represented in the Regiment by some of the very best young men of their respective localities—men who came up to the requirements of the Committee, and who have shown themselves to be gentlemen in every sense of the word. The rapid improvement of the Regiment we think can be easily accounted for. Each member felt that he was assigned to a proud and responsible position, that he was the representative of a constituency who would expect from him a faithful account of his stewardship, and that he could not be unmindful of his duty, without bringing reproach and discredit upon those who had conferred honor upon him. Actuated and prompted by such feelings each and every man devoted himself assiduously to his task, which was rendered pleasant by the care and attention of the officers, and their personal endeavors to instruct them. Thus the Regiment has been brought to its high standard, and thus it will become one of the best, if not the very best, organized in the State.

The officers of the Regiment are all excellent soldiers, as is evident from the excellent drill, and the discipline—maintained. They are all young, active, energetic and intelligent, and esteemed to their men. We venture the assertion, that in no Regiment can there be found such a cordiality of feeling as exists between the rank and file of this really crack organization.

The Lieutenent Colonel is James C. Rice, of New York, a brother-in-law of W. A. Rice, Esq., of the firm of McClure & Co., of this city. He was formerly a Captain in the Garibaldi Guards, and came from Virginia to enter the Ellsworth's. He is 30 years of age, and is well qualified for the position he holds.

The Major is James McKown of this city. When the Barracks were opened in this city, Brig.-Gen. Rathbone assigned him a position on his Staff, and he acted as Major. He has seen service, having done duty during the Mexican war. Those who know him best, know him to be a good soldier and a competent officer.

The Adjutant is E. B. Knox. He was born in Eastport, Me., and is 36 years of age. He was one of the Chicago Cadets, and was known as the "Little Corporal." He joined the Fire Zouaves under Ellsworth, and acted as 1st Lieutenant of Co. A. He has seen service, and hard service too, as he was at the battle of Bull Run with the Zouaves. To speak of his qualifications for the position of Adjutant would be superfluous, as he is known to be as good a soldier as ever wore an epaulette.

The Quartermaster is Frederick H. Munday, of Seneca Falls. He was taken from the ranks and promoted to the position he now holds, on account of his peculiar fitness to discharge its duties.

The Surgeon is Dr. — Prothomming of New York, and the Assistant Surgeon Dr. — Bissell, of Erie County, both gentlemen skilled in medicine, and enjoying the reputation of being at the head of their profession.

The Chaplain of the Regiment is Rev. Loomis H. Pease, of Saratoga. He is a man of very complete and thorough education, being a graduate of Williams College, receiving the highest honors of his class. He is an eloquent speaker, and several years traveled in Europe, where he visited the camps, and became quite conversant with the regime of the Continental and English Military Departments, peculiarly qualifying him for the position he holds. He is of sound and liberal views, and free from any sectional prejudice. He is 35 years of age, very social in disposition, and highly respected by the Regiment. His powers of endurance have been pretty well tested, as he traveled all over the Holy Land on foot, showing pretty conclusively that his marching capacity is of the first order.

The members of the Non-commissioned Staff are as follows:

Geo. B. Henderson, Sergt. Major; 24 years of age, of Utica.

Henry C. Howlett, Quartermaster's Sergeant; 28 years of age, of Mohawk, Herkimer Co.

Samuel W. Tanner, Commissary Sergeant; 20 years of age, of Buffalo.

Edward Frothingham, Hospital Steward; 21 years of age, of Johnstown.

The companies are officered as follows:

Co. A—Captain, E. B. Chapin, of Buffalo; 1st Ensign, George M. Love; 2d do., Benjamin F. Kimberly; 1st Sergeant, Jacob R. Fox; 2d do., W. A. Rogers; 3d do., A. P. Allen; 4th do., Henry C. Howlett, Quartermaster; 5th do., Elihu A. Cook.

Capt. Chapin was one of the Chicago Cadets, and 1st Lieutenant, Co. F, Fire Zouaves. He was in the battle of Bull Run.

Capt. Barrow was also one of the Chicago Cadets, and 1st Lieutenant of Co. I, Fire Zouaves. He was also at the battle of Bull Run.

First Sergeant, Enos Lewis D. Dunham; 2d do., Frederick A. Moh; 3d do.,8 Gardner S. Parker; 4th do., William M. Rogers; 5th do., John T. Beneke.

Capt. Conner was also one of the Chicago Cadets, and 1st Lieutenant of Co. D, Fire Zouaves, and was in command at the battle of Bull Run.

2d Lieutenant Burdick is the tallest man in the Regiment, measuring six feet seven inches in his boots.

At the time Capt. Walsh united with the Regiment he was proprietor of a flourishing Academy at New Paltz, which he closed in order to serve his country.

Co. F.—This is the Albany company) Captain, Campbell Allen; 1st Ensign, James McMillan; 2d do., Charles Gibbs; 1st Sergeant, Charles Zollman; 2d do., R. H. McCormick; 3d do., Anthony G. Graves; 4th do., Andrew Love; 5th do., John Ramsay.

Capt. Allen, at the time of joining the regiment, was Principal of Public School No. 2, in this city.

Co. G.—Captain, Wm. Vanderlip, of Albany; 1st Lieutenant, Charles E. Pease, of Albany; 2d do., Christopher R. Bcker, of Albany; 3d Sergeant, Jerome Tate; 4th do., Peter Van Alstyne; 5th do., Chas. A. Wheeler; 6th do., Wm. Johnston; 7th do. vacant.

Capt. Banks was likewise one of the Chicago Cadets.

Co. K.—Captain, Wm. H. Miller; 1st Lieutenant, James Jones; 2d do., F. R. Munday.

We have thus briefly sketched the origin, rise, and progress of this splendid Regiment which is to leave our city, for Washington, on Monday afternoon next. That it will do credit to the Empire State, will not be doubted by those who know the material of which it is composed. The Ellsworth's will make their mark wherever they may go, and their war cry will be "REMEMBER ELLSWORTH!"

The gentlemen comprising the Executive Committee of the Ellsworth Association, to whom we are mainly indebted for this unexcelled military organization, are deserving of the highest praise for their energy and perseverance, and for the manner in which the entire work has been managed. The whole expenses incurred by the committee, in perfecting the organization, will not reach one hundred and fifty dollars. With the money raised by subscriptions throughout the State, a complete fatigue uniform (Zouave style) has been purchased, as also many necessary articles of clothing. The Regiment will, therefore, leave the city as completely equipped as any that has gone from this State.

The citizens of the State of New York have every reason to feel proud of the Ellsworth's, as we have no doubt they are; and we know that we express the sentiment of the people when we say, that they have every confidence in their ability and willingness to maintain its honor, and fight manfully against all Rebel and traitors wherever they may find them.
