69th NY?  Not in the regimental roster

NR  Not in unit roster. This name is not in the regimental roster of the 69th New York Volunteer Infantry, and the correct regiment for this soldier is unknown. This soldier must remain in this list until his regiment can be found.

There were four versions of the 69th New York State Militia, and the 1862 version became the 182nd New York (Corcoran Legion). There was a 69th in the Spanish-American War, and World War I, and the militia unit has been in existence since 1852. There is a roster of the 182nd NY and the 69th SAW in the National Archives.

This list was compiled by Robert McLernon, with a lot of help.

“Go to sleep!
Go to sleep!
Slumber well where the shell screamed and fell
Let your rifles rest on the muddy floor,
You will not need them anymore
Danger's past,
Now, at last,
Go to sleep!”

Rouge Bouquet
by Sgt Joyce Kilmer
Killed in Action July 30, 1918 France
165th Infantry / 69th NY World War I

Farewell!!
Farewell!!
Comrade true, born anew, peace to you!
Your soul shall be where the heroes are and your memory shine like the Morning Star
Brave and dear, shield us here.
Farewell!!

Joyce Kilmer

“Pause stranger as you linger here,
And for a Soldier drop a tear,
Far, far away a mother weeps,
For him who neath this mound now sleeps”

From the headstone of:
William Tibbetts Sgt Company K 1st Maine Cavalry
April 19, 1865 Arlington National Cemetery Section 13 Grave Number 9850 (Tibbitts)
“The war drum’s throb and bugle sound
Ye loved to hear is o’er-
The damp, cold earth is heaped above
Your hearts forevermore;
But memory of your gallant deeds
Enliven, stirs and thrills
Like echoes of a clarion call
Around Killarney’s Hills.

From: The Irish Brigade at Gettysburg

By William Geoghegan

Poem read at Gettysburg on July 2, 1888

“Soldier rest
Thy warfare is o’er
Sleep the sleep that
Knows no waking
Dream of battlefields no more.”

Where did this come from?

“Rest easy, sleep well my brothers
Know the line has held, your job is done.
Rest easy, sleep well
Others have taken up where you fell, the line has held.
Peace, peace, and farewell...”

“As long as valour shineth
Or mercy’s soul at war repineth,
So long shall Erin’s pride
Tell how they lived and died.”

“Order of Memorial Ceremonies”
Gettysburg, July 2, 1888
From Corby, “Memoirs of Chaplain Life” 1992
“Few of those brave souls who, under the Green Flag of their own native land, fought so well to defend the Stars and Stripes of the land of their adoption, are now with us. Those who lived through the storm of the battles are rapidly passing to the other side, to join the heroes who fell in the fight.”

“The Irish Brigade in the War for the Union.”
By Maj.-Gen. St. Clair A. Mulholland
From “Memoirs of Chaplain Life.”
By William Corby, C. S. C. 1893 p. 391

“His toils are past, his work is done
And he is fully blest.
He fought the fight, the victory won
And enters into rest”

The Bivouac of the Dead

“The muffled drum’s sad roll has beat
The soldier’s last tattoo;
No more on life’s parade shall meet
That brave and fallen few.
On fame’s eternal camping-ground
Their silent tents are spread,
And Glory guards with solemn round
The bivouac of the dead. (1)

No rumor of the foe’s advance
Now swells upon the wind;
No troubled thought at midnight haunts
Of loved ones left behind;
No vision of the morrow’s strife
The warrior’s dream alarms;
No braying horn or screaming fife
At dawn shall call to arms. (2)

The neighing troop, the flashing blade,
The bugle’s stirring blast,
The charge, the dreadful cannonade,
The din and shout, are past;
Nor war’s wild note nor glory’s peal
Shall thrill with fierce delight
Those breasts that nevermore may feel
The rapture of the fight. (?)
So ‘neath their parent turf they rest
    Far from the gory field;
Borne to a Spartan mother’s breast
    On many a bloody shield;
The sunshine of their native sky
    Smiles sadly on them here,
And kindred hearts and eyes watch by
    The heroes sepulchre. (7)

Rest on, embalmed and sainted dead!
    Dear as the blood you gave,
No impious footsteps here shall tread
    The herbage of your grave;
Nor shall your glory be forgot
    While Fame her record keeps,
Or Honor points the hallowed spot
    Where Valor proudly sleeps. (8)

Yon marble minstrel’s voiceless stone
    In deathless songs shall tell,
When many a vanished age hath flown,
    The story how ye fell;
Nor wreck, nor change, or winter’s blight
    Not time’s remorseless doom,
Shall dim one ray of holy light
    That gilds your glorious tomb. (9)

Theodore O’Hara

O’Hara wrote this about Kentucky troops in the Mexican – American War

The Minstrel Boy

The Minstrel boy to the war is gone, in the ranks of death you will find him.
His father’s sword he hath girded on,
and his wild harp slung behind him.
Excerpt from General Order No. 11 issued by
Headquarters, Grand Army of the Republic
Washington, D.C., May 5, 1868

"Let us, then, at the time appointed,
Gather around their sacred remains
And garland the passionless mounds
Above them with choicest flowers of Springtime; let us raise above them the
Dear Old Flag they saved from dishonor;
Let us in this solemn presence review our Pledges to aid and assist those whom
They have left among us as sacred
Charges upon the Nation’s gratitude,--"

Decoration Day, which became Memorial Day

Find the cost of freedom
Buried in the ground
Mother Earth will swallow you
Lay your body down

“Find the Cost of Freedom” By Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young

“---that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion – that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain...”

Abraham Lincoln  Gettysburg Address

These are from the Arlington National Cemetery website:

I pray that our Heavenly Father
may assuage the anguish of your bereavement, and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost, and the solemn pride that must be yours, to have laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom.

Abraham Lincoln  November, 1864

“War drew us from our homeland
In the sunlit springtime of our youth.
Those who did not come back alive remain in perpetual springtime – forever young –
And a part of them is with us always.”
