DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Delivers candid and timely communication counsel and guidance to Air Force leaders on the communication and public perception implications of key decisions, policies, and operations and their potential impact on mission success. Participates in the development of plans and policies and monitors operations to assure consideration of such implications. Researches, plans, executes, and assesses communication strategies and activities. Ensures all public affairs efforts adhere to applicable federal law, DOD principles governing the release of information, and Air Force policies. Advocates for and manages funds, manpower, training, and equipment to effectively execute public affairs operations to support the mission. Plans, directs, and leads public affairs deployments. Ensures a free flow of releasable information to the news media. Establishes and maintains relationships with news media representatives, facilitates media access, prepares Air Force subject matter experts for media interviews, and evaluates media coverage. Supports DOD-approved entertainment industry, documentary, and publication requests. Promotes public knowledge and understanding of Air Force missions, organizations, and capabilities. Fosters coordination, cooperation, and mutual appreciation between the Air Force, local communities, state and federal agencies, and DOD/inter-agency components. Evaluates requests for Air Force support to public events, and coordinates appropriate participation to achieve the commander's communication objectives. Manages environmental public affairs issues and events and ensures legal mandates for community involvement are met. Assists Air Force recruiting efforts. Advises on capabilities, employment, and limitations of Air Force bands and their use in achieving strategic effects based on the commander's priorities, initiatives, and intent. Establishes the means to link Airmen and their leaders through a robust command information program. Advises about content, propriety, timing, and relative importance of information for internal release through all available means. Contributes to the morale, readiness, productivity, and retention typical of a well-informed force. Plans for and manages visual information requirements and directs the centralized collection, management, and distribution of imagery for planning, operational, documentation, public affairs, and historical use. Plans for, directs, and leads Combat Camera Airmen in the visual documentation of exercises and combat, contingency, and peacetime operations.
