Duty Title: Assistant SE Europe Regional Plans Officer

MOS: 01A

Rank: MAJ O4

Clearance Level: TS/SCI

Mission Description: Serves as the Assistant Southeast Europe Regional Security Planner responsible for supporting the analytical reviews of emerging Southeast European regional campaign planning efforts. Assists in the development of component campaign logic to support assigned campaign planning efforts. In coordination with the USAREUR G5 International Military Affairs Branch, develops and coordinates planning support activities for Army forces in Southeast Europe. Analyzes the strategic guidance of higher headquarters and applies operational art to address complex problems and frame them for the Army Service Component Command/Theater Army leadership. Assists in the nesting of regional plans with national and theater strategic guidance. Serves as a cognitive operator and artifact generator for assigned Operational Design and Planning Teams. Assignments generally involve extensive contact with other USAREUR staff members. The purpose of contacts is to summarize, interpret, and exchange information on difficult or misunderstood issues; to present and defend results of work; to negotiate with other groups and individuals holding differing viewpoints and goals; and to establish working relationships with other organizations, agencies, universities, or industry. The establishment of contacts is frequently an important aspect of work at this level and requires tact and negotiating skills. Also provides advice and recommendations as required to support branch efforts and priorities. Sets standards, maintains currency in regional political-military affairs, synthesizes staff output, and leads by example. Potential for temporary duty travel within Theater and to CONUS.

This is an unaccompanied PCS tour without HHG or POV shipment. A valid Government Travel Credit Card (GTCC) is required for this tour.
